

PRIME offers insurance policy administration software that is innovative and has been designed to give you a competitive edge by boosting up productivity and reducing costs. You can meet your critical business challenges by utilizing its cutting-edge functionality that is advanced and works robustly.

Following are some of the benefits realized by our clients:

- Reduced total cost of ownership
- Customized roadmap for your business process
- Consistency and predictability
- Easy to integrate
- Single-system efficiency model
- Bring insurance products faster to market
- Easy customization and increased flexibility
- Powerful calculation engine
- Real-time information access

Characteristics of Prime PAS Product

- Software as Service
- Dynamic User Interface
- Easy integration with different vendors and Insurance systems (Agent, various backend systems)
- Choice of Cloud and in-house deployments.
- Underwriter work place
- Distinct workflow administration
  - Policy
  - Product
  - Under writer
- Ability to Integrate with Analytics
- Ability to integrate with Predictive analysis.
- Technical:
  - Clear cut separation between core and Product/Policy Configuration
  - Robust webservice mechanism
  - Easy to reuse code structure to accommodate various devices including mobile.
  - OWASP/HIPPA security standards

Delivering successful, Reliable, Cost-effective solutions