Prime Technology HIMSS15

Monday February 16, 2015 (Wayne, PA) - Chicago welcomes the 2015 HIMSS Annual Conference & Exhibition, April 12-16, 2015, at McCormick Place. More than 38,000 healthcare industry professionals are expected to attend to discuss health IT issues and view innovative solutions designed to transform healthcare.

Prime Technology Group is proud to be an exhibitor at this annual event that helps health IT professionals find the right solutions for their organizations. Prime is “Leading Innovation, while transforming Health Care Systems” said, Sudhakar Goverdhanam, CEO of Prime Technology Group. We are bringing wanted technology to Health Care Systems that not only is cutting edge but, is revolutionizing how operational systems will connect and share information to benefit patient outcomes in real time environments with Predictive Analytics and machine learning capabilities.

Conference education sessions include preconference symposia on clinical and business analytics, HIEs, innovation, mobile health, nursing informatics, physicians’ IT and more. More than 300 peer-reviewed sessions, including workshops and roundtables, round out education offerings at HIMSS15.

George W. Bush, 43rd President of the United States, leads a strong roster of speakers that also includes Alex Gourlay, President, Walgreens; Bruce D. Broussard, President and CEO, Humana; and Jeremy Gutsche, Founder of Trendhunter.com and Author of “Exploiting Chaos.”

The HIMSS15 Exhibit Hall will feature the Connected Patient Gallery, Federal Health IT Solutions Pavilion, HIMSS First-Time Exhibitors Area, HIMSS Health IT Value Suite, HIMSS Interoperability Showcase™, Intelligent Health™ Pavilion (formerly known as Intelligent Hospital Pavilion), and three Knowledge Centers focused on clinical and business intelligence, disaster preparedness and mobile health.
