PRIME ANNOUNCES NEXT GENERATION CLINICAL DECISION SUPPORT (CDS) SOLUTIONS

Monday, March 16, 2015 (Wayne, PA) – Prime Technology Group, LLC, a leading provider of clinical decision support solutions, today announced enhancements to its solutions portfolio of products and services, which includes creating and developing integrated Clinical Decisions Support system (CDS) solutions for clients across multiple business domains, including but not limited to healthcare and life sciences services sectors.

According to a company spokesman, the company provides next-generation Clinical Decision Support system based on its new Predictive hospital and medical solutions machine learning for the Healthcare and Life Sciences industry. The spokesman for the Prime Technology Group says: “Prime’s new predictive analytics and machine learning platform enables evidence-based knowledge/data —whether structured and unstructured —absorbed from disparate sources to address the most complex analytics problems healthcare providers, payers, clinicians, and drug manufacturers are facing. Therefore, implementing such a solution based upon value-based Predictive Analytics will help us promote our image and prestige in the IT markets.”

Paul Burkitt, Global Head - Sales & Marketing of Prime Technology Group, LLC adds: “Improving patient and financial outcomes with Clinical Decision Support is one of the powerful levers necessary for significant transformation in the quality and cost of delivering healthcare. Therefore, Prime offers its innovative Predictive technologies for collecting, processing, storing, accessing and visualizing data that employs a range of processes to improve data quality.”

“Prime’s next generation CDS has enhanced the technology for Health care software solutions becoming a favorite in its space.” added Mr. Burkitt. “We have specific new capabilities in mind and here’s the opportunity to enable Prime’s economically sound Decision Support in your organizations take the next leap that allows you to stand out in a crowded marketplace.”

Prime Technology representatives will be available to discuss its next generation Clinical Decision Support (CDS) service offering with you at the HIMSS 2015 Annual Conference & Exhibition taking place April 13-15th, 2015 in Chicago, IL 60603-5616. We are at Booth # 6961.
